UNITED STATES CONSUL DEAD.

The State Department Receives Confirmation of the Loss of Consul Prentiss and Entire Family.

WASHINGTON, MAY 12.—THE SECRETARY OF STATE RECEIVED TODAY FROM LOUIS H. AYME, U. S. CONSUL AT PONTA-PITRE GUADELOUPE, WHO WENT TO MARTINIQUE, WITH INSTRUCTIONS FROM THIS GOVERNMENT. THE FOLLOWING DISPATCH: "FORT DE FRANCE, MAY 11.—THE DISASTER IS COMPLETE. THE CITY (ST. PIERRE) IS WIPED OUT. CONSUL PRENTISS AND HIS FAMILY ARE DEAD. THE GOVERNOR SAYS 30,000 PERISHED; FIFTY THOUSAND ARE HOMELESS AND HUNGRY. I WOULD SUGGEST THAT THE RED CROSS SOCIETY BE ASKED TO SEND COD FISH, FLOUR, BEANS, RICE, SALT MEATS AND BISCUITS AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE. THE VISIT OF WAR VESSELS IS VALUABLE."

Suchet's Commander Reports. Paris, May 12.—The minister of marine, M. De Lanessan, received a cable dispatch from the commander of the French cruiser Suchet, dated Fort De France, Martinique, saying that he conducted a search at St. Pierre. The captain reports that the town is now a mere heap of smoking ruins, under which the victims of the catastrophe are buried. The Suchet was able to convey some of the inhabitants of Le Precheur to Fort De France, but could not reach the northernmost part of the island on account of the dense rain of ashes. The captain of the Suchet further reported that the Mont Pelée volcano still had a threatening aspect. Subterranean rumblings were still heard, flashes of flame frequently belched from the volcano, and stones were thrown out with immense force. A dispatch received at the colonial office here from Fort De France says there is no doubt that Governor Moutet and the commander of the troops at St. Pierre, Colonel Dain, are dead. Other dispatches confirm the reports that the American and British consuls and their families perished.

Eruption of Soufriere Volcano. Kingston, Island of St. Vincent, B. W. I., May 12.—After numerous earthquakes during the preceding fortnight, accompanied by subterranean noises in the direction of the Soufriere volcano, on the northwest part of the island, a loud explosion from the crater occurred Monday last and the water in the crater lake ascended in a stupendous cloud of steam and exploded heavily. The noises grew louder continually until Wednesday morning, when the old crater, three miles in circumference, and the new crater formed by the last eruption, belched smoke and stones, forcing the residents of Wallibon and Richmond valleys, beneath the volcano, to flee to Chateau

DETECTIVE

Has Started on His Trip to Italy

To Bring Back the Girl Who Was Kidnapped From Cincinnati Four Years Ago.

Cincinnati, May 12.—Detective G. W. Ryan left for Washington to get additional papers for his trip to Italy to bring Miss Clara Taylor back to Cincinnati. He bears all the extradition papers from Governor Nash and Prosecutor Hoffheimer and expects to sail from New York on the St. Paul next Wednesday. Prosecutor Hoffheimer made requisition on the county commissioners for $1,500 for Ryan's trip and to bear the expenses of the prosecution in case Miss Taylor resisted extradition and required a hearing of the kidnapping charges in Italy.

Rabbi's Conduct Denounced. New York, May 12.—The discussion concerning the observance of the Sabbath, which arose during the annual session of the central conference of American rabbis in New Orleans recently, has stirred up more or less argument among the orthodox Hebrews in this city. Vigorous protest has been made against the liberal school of rabbis, who raised the question in the conference, to the extent of suggesting that the Sabbath day should be changed. The Teluk Torah committee of the Ohio Jewish congregation, this city, met and denounced the conduct of the rabbis at New Orleans.

No Game Played. Cleveland, May 12.—There was no attempt to play a game of professional ball here by the Cleveland American league team. The baseball people decided not to oppose the sheriff's determination to stop any attempt at a game, and President Kilfoyle of the local team said that in deference to the court before whom the argument for an injunction was made, and which has not yet rendered a decision, no game would be played.

The Weather. Washington, May 12.—Ohio, generally fair tonight and Tuesday; warmer Tuesday.

Fatal Row. Grayson, Ky., May 12.—Robert Hicks was killed, Tom Tackett fatally wounded, W. M. Smith shot in forehead and Henry Tackett cut three times with a knife so that he will die, and others were hurt, in a row at Olive Hill. The guilty parties are under arrest and trouble is expected.

Cunarders Not Purchased. London, May 21.—The Cunard line officials say there is absolutely no foundation for the statement made at Baltimore by William Plonkey, managing director of the Neptune line of steamers, that the Morgan shipping syndicate has bought the Cunard line.

Obedied the Order to Strike.

The Agreement

Made That No Attempt to Operate Mines

Would be Made Has Been Faithfully Kept by All Concerned.

It is Estimated That Nearly One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Miners Are Idle Today as a Result.

Scranton, Pa., May 12.—From all parts of the anthracite coal mining fields come reports of complete suspension of work today. John Mitchell's order for a three days strike, pending the decision of the miners in convention at Hazleton on Wednesday, is being religiously obeyed. Today in many places the miners are holding open air meetings at which delegates are being chosen to attend the convention and are being instructed whether or not to vote for a continuance of the strike.

MEETINGS HELD

And Delegates Elected to Hazleton Convention.

Scranton, Pa., May 12.—There was no coal mined in the Scranton end of the anthracite region, the strike order being religiously obeyed. The companies agreed at a meeting of the general managers and superintendents Saturday that no attempt would be made to operate. Some of the companies, however, propose to keep a few at least of their washeries running, to insure a supply of culm for locomotives, hoisting engines and the like. The strike has already made itself seriously felt in other lines of work. The railroads have laid off four-fifths of their coal train crews, in all about 800 men, and the Erie shops at Dunsmore, where mine cars and machinery are repaired, will shut down indefinitely, throwing 300 men out of employment.

Meetings of all the locals are being held to elect and instruct the delegates to the Hazleton convention. The sentiment among the more thoughtful and intelligent miners is opposed to a continuance of the strike. These men will use as one of their chief arguments the significant fact that the companies' mine officials are not soliciting their men to vote against the strike, while at the same relative time in the last strike these same officers were working day and night to discourage the men from striking. The story that the Morganized fleets will be used to import coal and prevent a famine does not cause President Mitchell any evident concern. He dismisses it with the remark that the United States is now exporting coal to all parts of the world. It is estimated that 140,000 miners are idle today.

Locked Out Their Men. Hazleton, Pa., May 12.—Anticipating the action of their employees, two of the individual coal companies in this region locked out their men. This step was taken when Cox Brothers & Company, operating the Beaver Meadow colliery, and Calvin Pardee, Sons & Company, owners of the Lattimer mines, notified their employees that they need not report for work until ordered to do so. This order does not apply to engineers, firemen and pump runners, whose services are necessary to keep the mines free from water. These companies, it is believed, expect a long struggle.

Companies Prepared. Shamokin, Pa., May 12.—The local offices of the mines in the Shamokin district owned by the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company, the Union Coal company and the Mineral Railroad and Mining company were notified by their respective companies not to hire men to cut coal during the suspension of the United Mine Workers. The mine foremen were also instructed to keep the boiler houses manned in case the firemen now at work should remain away from the collieries.

Killed By a Pitched Ball. West Chester, Pa., May 11.—Walter L. Myles, son of Miss Myles of Baldwinsville, near Wilkesbarre, Pa., a junior pupil of the normal school of this city, died from injuries received in being struck by a pitched ball here. The ball hit Myles behind the left ear and felled him to the ground. He was 18 years old.

LEGISLATURE HAS ADJOURNED

And the Members Can Now Go Home and Explain, If They Can, Why They Voted as They Did,

And at the Dictation of the Lobby Threw Away so Much of the People's Money—Many of Them Will Have a Big Task on Their Hands to Satisfy Their Constituents.

Columbus, Ohio, May 12.—The 75th General Assembly of Ohio adjourned today two hours later than the time provided for by the joint resolutions for general adjournment. The delay was due to the House of Representatives in which there was a rush of business in the morning hours. The House took up the Patterson election bill and amended it so as to make the 12th district consist of Franklin county alone, adding Fairfield county to General Grosvenor's district. The senate promptly concurred and the new redistricting bill is now a law. No other changes were made.

THE RING PRESIDENT RECEIVES AN APPROPRIATE PRESENT.

Interesting closing ceremonies were held in both branches. In the senate at 11 o'clock Senator Harding, of Marion county, took the chair and recognized Senator Royer of Seneca county, the Democratic leader. On behalf of the Democrats Senator Royer presented President Archer, of Belmont county, with an ivory gavel. Senator Hosca for the Republicans, presented the President with a seal ring engraved with the arms of the U. S. Happy speeches were made, President Archer responding with much feeling.

WONDER IF THE LOBBY HELPED BUY IT.

In the House the clock stopped at 10 minutes before 12 and remained there until 2 o'clock, when adjournment was finally effected. Judge Thomas, of Huron county, on behalf of his fellow members, presented Speaker McKinnon with a fine gold watch and Representative White, of Clark county, in a neat speech, presented him a cut glass water set. Clerk MacElroy and the clerk of the Senate and the subordinates of both houses were substantially remembered. The closing ceremonies were the presentation to the Speaker of an ivory gavel by Representative Cole, of Hancock county, who made the principal speech of the day.

THE LAST ACT OF A BODY NOT SO FAMOUS AS INFAMOUS.

Both Houses appointed the usual committees to wait on the Governor and learn his pleasure and Private Secretary Finks formally responded with the announcement that the Governor had no further communication to make to the General Assembly, whereupon the legislature adjourned sine die, and the members will now go home and attempt to square themselves with their constituents for having been parties to a line of conduct which has made the 75th General Assembly notorious if not noted and more infamous than famous.

A RECEIVER

Is Asked for the College at Oxford.

A Stockholder Goes Into Court and Makes a Petition for Relief.

Cincinnati, May 12.—In the United States court Mrs. Lillie M. Walker of Philadelphia petitions for a receiver for Oxford college at Oxford, O., and names as defendants William M. Shera, Caleb A. Shera, George C. Welliver and ex-Congressman H. L. Morey, all of whom are directors of the institution. The Messrs. Shera are bankers at Oxford. Mr. Welliver, besides running a grocery, is also a director of a bank. Prior to 1897 Mrs. Walker owned the college property, and her husband, Dr. Faye S. Walker, was president of the college. A stock company was afterward organized of which Mrs. Walker became a stockholder, and the present suit is for both an accounting and damages. There are about 100 young ladies at the college now.

MILLIONS

Of Cattle, Hogs and Sheep Slaughtered

And Sold During the Past Year According to the Terms of Bill of Complaint.

Chicago, May 12.—The bill of complaint is against Swift & Co., the Cudahy Packing company, the Hammond Packing company, Armour and Company, the Armour Packing company, the C. H. Hammond company, Charles Schindler & Suisberger, Nelson, Morris & Co. and the individuals composing these corporations and firms. It declares that they have been and are now engaged in the business of buying live stock at stockyards throughout the United States and slaughtering such live stock at plants maintained for that purpose; that they are also engaged in the business of selling fresh meats to dealers and consumers, and shipping these meats over the lines of the railroad companies serving as common carriers. The defendants, it is alleged, control about 60 per cent of the total volume of the trade having during 1901, slaughtered, sold and shipped four million cattle, five million sheep and six million hogs.

Riot at a Circus.

Beziers, France, May 12.—Barnum & Bailey's circus was the cause of a serious riot here. The crowd seeking admission to the performance was greater than the tent could accommodate, and those who were unable to enter began stoning the circus employees, five of whom were injured. One had his skull fractured and will probably die. The crowd numbered about 7,000. They cut the tent ropes and several thousand persons forced their way to the arena. The police were powerless to check them. Troops were called out and restored order.

DAVIS

Has Arrived at the Island

With Chaffee.

He at Once Broke for the Interior.

Claims That Armed Resistance Has Ceased on Luzon Island.

The Commission Has Passed a Law Abolishing Imprisonment for Debt After Swearing to Bankruptcy.

Manilla, May 12.—General Chaffee arrived at Malabang, island of Mindanao, where he was met by General Davis, the commander of the American forces in the islands. Generals Chaffee and Davis, with an escort, at once started to ride to Lake Lanao, in the interior.

The American forces in the province of Batangas, southern Luzon, have been concentrated at several towns in the province. This action is taken because armed insurgent resistance in the province has ceased. The United States Philippine commission has passed a law abolishing imprisonment for debt after the debtor has sworn to bankruptcy. Until this law goes into effect the expenses of those persons who are now in jail for debt must be borne by their prosecutors and must be paid weekly.

Another case of cholera has occurred on board the United States army transport Warren. The ship and her passengers will be detained in quarantine for an additional five days. The Warren has already been quarantined for cholera for over 10 days. There have been 913 cases and 736 deaths from cholera in Manilla, while the provinces report 2,710 cases and 1,907 deaths from the disease.

The records, pleadings and evidence in case of the San Jose medical college, amounting to 518 printed pages, have been put into book form and forwarded to the civil governor of the Philippines, William H. Taft, at Rome. The records are forwarded with the idea of their being available for Governor Taft's use while he is in Rome. The San Jose medical college case has been heard before the United States Philippine commission in Manilla. The point contested was whether college was owned and controlled by the United States government or the church in the Philippines. The commission referred the case to the supreme court of the Philippines.

MANY BILLS

Were Passed by the Lower House

Preparatory to the Final Adjournment of the Ohio Legislature.

Columbus, May 12.—Bills were passed by the house as follows: Appropriating $1,200 for the live stock commission; to create the office of state inspector of high explosives; providing that where railways have less than 200 miles of road in the state they shall pay $250 Dow tax on buffet or dining cars, and where they have over 200 miles $700 for the sale of liquor; permitting all cases to be appealed to the supreme court irrespective of the amount involved in the suit, former minimum limit being $3,000. The Meyers 14-cent fare bill for inter-urban railroads came up under suspension of the rules and was placed upon its passage. It was first amended, then tabled.

The Thompson bill repealing the Jones law preventing the placing of arc lights at railroad crossings and throwing the entire expense of lighting the streets in the vicinity of railroad tracks upon the municipalities of the state, came up as a special order in the senate, and after a warm debate was defeated by a vote of 15 yeas to 11 nays, one vote short of the requisite number to pass it. The defeat was clinched by defeating a motion to reconsider.

Bills passed by the senate: Extending mechanics' lien laws so they will apply to electric railways; requiring payment of fees from building and loan and insurance companies to the state treasurer instead of the insurance department, and placing all attaches of the insurance department on salaries; increasing compensation of penitentiary officers; providing that employers shall keep a register of minors in their employ; fixing a penalty for delivering or mailing to a child under 16 years immoral literature; appropriating $14,000 for the Ohio naval brigade.

UNHEEDED

Were the Protests of the Foreigners.

Whose Lives were Endangered When the Troops Shelled the Town.

Port of Spain, Trinidad, May 12.—Advices from Carripano, Venezuela, which was attacked by land and sea May 6th by government troops without 24 hours notice to non-combatants, say that the carnage was fearful. The foreigners are without assistance from their governments, notwithstanding appeals and protests against the continued shelling of towns without giving the non-combatants an opportunity to leave are made. Correspondents have been requested to appeal to the United States for interference.

FULLY A THOUSAND Who Escaped Lava, Died From Injuries or Hunger.

Paris, May 12.—A dispatch says "A chief party is now at work at St. Pierre, Martinique. All work is centered in disposing of the bodies. Firewood, quicklime and petroleum are used for this purpose. The water supply at St. Pierre is tainted or has disappeared and this necessity has to be transported to the scene. The rescuers found the inhabitants to be in dire distress. It is estimated that a thousand persons who escaped the deadly lava here, have since died from injuries or lack of food, water and care. St. Pierre is practically wiped out. The streets cannot be traced and the buildings everywhere are in ruins, covered with lava and ashes. The vaults of the bank of Martinique are intact. They contain $100,000. Lava continues to run down Mt. Pelée, but in lessening streams."

To Force Down Meat Prices. New York, May 12.—Fifteen hundred district butcher butchers of the east side met to consider the advance in prices of meat by the wholesale butchers. In an attempt to force down the price the meeting decided that the retail shops should be closed all day today and Tuesday and that no meat should be bought from the wholesalers on these days. The question of a continuance of the refusal to buy meat will be discussed at a meeting to be held Tuesday night.

FIRST

Base Ball Game of the Season in

Wapakoneta

To be Played Sunday With Sidney.

Republicans of Auglaize Will Present Their Farce Tonight.

Francis Rosenthal Will be Sent to School in Indiana and Away From Evil Associations.

Wapakoneta, O., May 12.—The Wapakoneta ball team, which will be composed in part of the old members of the Wapakoneta Reds have nearly completed their organization, and are getting the park in shape for an opening game next Sunday, with the Sidney champions, from whom they are very confident they can win, although Sidney succeeded in securing two good players from here, Harry Elchler and Guy Miller. The baseball enthusiasm here had nearly died out but it is being resuscitated and the usual crowd of rooters will be on hand next Sunday.

Evil Influences the Cause. Miss Frances Rosenthal the young girl who ran off from her parents at St. Marys and was apprehended at Lima and brought back here to the county jail will be taken to a young ladies' school at Aldensburg, Ind. Her parents were unable longer to keep her under their control and were desirous of sending her to Lancaster, but friends prevailed upon them to send her to the young ladies' school thinking that she would reform if taken away from the evil influences surrounding her.

Republicans Meet Tonight. The Republicans of this city will meet this evening in the court house for the purpose of selecting three delegates from the first ward, five from the second and four from the third, to attend the county convention, which will be held here tomorrow in the assembly room of the court house for the purpose of choosing five delegates and five alternates to the state convention and also for the purpose of nominating a county ticket. Alex. Victor, of St. Marys, has been nominated temporary chairman, and E. B. Yale, of Waynesfield, temporary secretary of the convention. Three delegates to this convention were chosen Saturday by precinct "B" this township.

Showing of the Two Banks. The report of the two banks up to and including April 30, has been made, showing in the First National Bank, resources and liabilities to the amount of $14,174.18; and in the Peoples National Bank to the amount of $500,101.02.

An Exceptional Sunday. Yesterday was an exception to the general rule in this city for Sunday. Not many drunks were to be seen, at least so bad but they could take care of themselves, one arrest only being made, while heretofore there would be from six to a dozen.

Two From Auglaize County. Two Auglaize county men have been chosen as jurors for the June term of the United States District court, at Toledo. They are Julius Roedel, a banker of New Bremen, and Jacob Logan, of Unopolis, former county commissioner.

Trained Animal Exhibition. Hughes and Huston's trained animal exhibition and hippodrome show will exhibit in this city tomorrow afternoon and evening. It has the WHAT'S IN A NAME? Depends upon the name. Scott's Emulsion is a name that has value. Maybe it doesn't mean much to you—but to the consumptive who has been strengthened and fattened, to the sickly children who have received good health, to the weak mothers and babies who have grown strong—to these Scott's Emulsion means something.

To all of them it has meant an easy and natural return to health.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like. SCOTT & BOWNE, 405 Pearl street, New York.

Lima papers are cracking because Findlay and a few bad men with the circus and Lima didn't, and attempts to give the Lima police force a great big boost accordingly. The truth of the matter is Chief Kramer and his excellent assistants nabbed all suspicious individuals before they had a chance to get in their graft and when the show visited Lima they were still in Findlay calaboose awaiting trial. If there's any boasting to be done it ought to be in favor of Chief Kramer and his men.—Findlay Courier.

UPON THE HARNESS Depends the Appearance of the Horse and Carriage.

Upon the harness with which a horse is dressed depends, to a great extent, the appearance of a "rig." No matter how high-bred the horse may be or how finely a carriage or buggy may be decorated, if the harness is not up-to-date and neat in appearance the entire outfit is bound to look cheap.

In order to secure the proper kind of harness it is necessary to purchase it at some reliable shop where the goods are strictly hand made. Such a place is the harness shop of G. E. Bible, 109 south Union street. There will be found the most thoroughly reliable and up-to-date line of harness in Lima. There you will find all the newest things in dusters, nets, sponges, and chamouis, and all the specialties which will be in demand for the coming summer months. A fine line of light buggy harness is always in stock.

In the repairing of harness no other shop in the city can be more highly recommended. The well known John G. Moore is foreman of this department, while Frank Stevenson is an able assistant. Do not fail to give Mr. Bible a call.

Inaugural Meeting to be Held in Tiffin and Closes at Mt. Vernon.

If the future ever had in store a promise of good things for those who enjoy horse racing of a high grade, the campaign arranged for this season over the half mile tracks is far in advance of circuit meetings that have been held in the past.

The inaugural meeting of the circuit is to be held at Tiffin June 25 to 27; then follows Mansfield July 2 to 4; Sandusky 9 to 11; Lima 15 to 18; Bucyrus 23 to 25; Marion July 30 to August 1, and Mt. Vernon August 6 to 8.

Owing to the arrangement of classes, the rich purses, which amount to $30,000, and the fact that but very short shipments are required, all of the towns being in close proximity, this circuit cannot help but prove attractive to horsemen. It is the opinion of the old trainers in Lima that there will be a larger number of entries this season than ever before and at this early day the circuit managers feel assured of a profitable venture.

CLASS

Of Thirty-six Communicants

Were Received

At St. Johns Church
Sunday Morning.

Impressive Services Conducted by the Pastor, Rev.
F. Rupert.

An L. E. & W. Employee Severely
Injured Saturday Afternoon—
Other News from Across the River.

The nine-thirty o'clock mass at St. Johns Catholic church yesterday morning, was of unusual interest to an exceedingly large congregation assembled to witness the reception of the first communion by a class of thirty-six young people. The communicants consisted of twenty-four girls and twelve boys. At the seven-thirty mass four converts commenced according to their new faith. Yesterday was the initial service of the kind in the history of St. Johns church. The church auditorium was beautifully decorated with spring flowers and festoonings. The entire surroundings were edifying and inspiring. Especially elaborate were the altar embellishments. Music of an exceptionally high order was rendered by a large well trained choir. A more impressive ceremony would be difficult to conceive. Rev. Frederick Rupert, the pastor, conducted the ceremonies which were grand in every detail. After the solemn administration of the sacrament, Rev. Rupert delivered an eloquent discourse elucidating the subject of "First Communion." His theme afforded occasion for the expression of sublime thoughts applicable to the function transpiring. All were deeply impressed by the sermon which was considered one of the ablest ever delivered by the pastor. In the afternoon vespers was sung and the class repeated in unison the renewal of their baptismal vows.

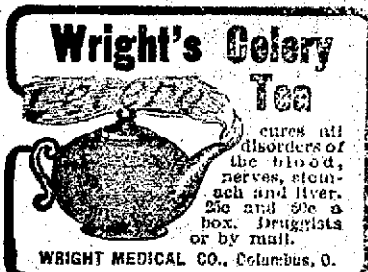

Illustrated Lecture.
In St. Johns auditorium Friday evening, May the thirtieth, Rev. I. J. Swanson, will deliver an illustrated lecture upon the subject of "From Dublin to Killarney." Sixty stereoscopic views will contribute additional interest to the entertainment.

A Curiosity.
J. M. Arndt has upon exhibition at his store on south Main street, a head of cabbage that is certainly a curiosity. The vegetable is in a large glass jar filled with colicite acid. While the cabbage is in a fair state of preservation about twenty-five small heads have grown out of it and are developing. This peculiarity is attracting no small amount of attention.

Will Entertain.
Mrs. Robert Reese, of south Main street, will entertain a number of lady friends at her home Wednesday evening. An excellent program is being arranged for the entertainment of the guests.

Eye Injured.
C. W. Lochhead, of St. Johns avenue is experiencing considerable inconvenience and much pain on account of sorely irritated eye caused by a cinder lodging in it. He has been unable to have all the offending particles removed.

Spine Sprained.
Working at the L. E. & W. shops

Saturday afternoon, Peter Wilhelm, a new employee, incurred a painful accident. In unloading castings he slipped and fell in such a position as to sprain his spine. He was rendered incapable to continue his duties, being removed to his home in an ambulance. It is thought the injury will detain him from work a long while.

Feminine Rampage.
John Whetzel, of Ada, visiting here relates an amusing incident that occurred in the classic village of Ada a few evenings ago. The girls of the college elated by successfully passing all examinations preparatory to graduation, became so enthused by not a single failure in their ranks that they decided to celebrate, which they did with vim. They paraded the streets delivering their class yells with a zest that soon put the night watchman to flight. Having the town to themselves the athletic maidens dragged an old wagon through the streets up to the university where they deposited the delapidated vehicle in chapel hall. Next morning president Lehr pardoned all the participants, saying, "Nothing is accomplished without great labor." Several of the young ladies interested, recently visited friends in south Lima.

After the Boys.
Officer Jacob Shook busied himself yesterday in warning certain lads in south Lima, that they must discontinue amusing themselves by breaking street light globes with stones, making the rounds he detected several youths smashing globes. He is maintaining a close watch intending to break up the practice. The genial policeman was also called upon to settle several family disputes in different portions of south Lima, yesterday.

Personal Pick Ups.
Frank Humes, of Montpelier, Ind., visited yesterday at his home on St. Johns avenue.

Ellie Evans went to Sidney yesterday afternoon. She will remain there this week upon a business mission.

Miss Leola Black, visiting relatives in south Lima, will leave this evening for her home at Ada.

Mrs. Joseph De Voe has returned from a several weeks stay at O. City, Pa.

Charles Pebble, of Waynesfield, was the guest yesterday of his brother, Le Roy Pebble, of south Jackson street.

John Berryman returned today from Dayton, where he spent Sunday with his wife and other relatives. Mrs. Berryman started this morning for Virginia, where she will remain for some time with her sister, before returning to her home in this city.

Jerry Bishop has entered upon the duties of his new position at Crossley Brothers store on south Main street.

Harvey Young, who was at the city hospital for treatment, is again at his home on Broadway.

C. W. Craft, a prominent young merchant of Noblesville, Ind., spent Sunday with relatives on east Kibby street.

J. R. Rakstraw, of south Main street, had for a visitor yesterday, Guy S. Rinebolt, of Montpelier, Ind.

Miss Anna Kepner was entertained by friends at St. Marys Sunday.

Miss Bertha Bliss has gone to Ada to attend the military contest.

Mrs. Thomas Baumgardner, of west Kibby street, is at Upper Sandusky, where she will spend the week with her daughter, Miss Lolo, who is employed as a stenographer in that city.

George Mourice has returned to Spencerville, after a brief visit with relatives on Holly street.

Mezdamess Carrie La Rue and Emma Shultz, the guests of Mrs. Ruthell

Laughlin, of St. Johns avenue, returned Saturday night to their home at Convey.
J. E. Smith, of Lancaster, enroute to Ohio City, where he has his farm, to some oil leases upon his farm, called upon his brother, J. S. Smith, of Broadway.
Mrs. J. R. Harshbo went to her home at Ada Saturday, after a pleasant visit with Mrs. J. Harshbo, of Oak street.
Edward Sawyer has resigned his position at Montpelier, Ind., and began work at the Locomotive Works.

MUSICAL

Treat in Store for the People of Lima.

The Choral Society to Give Another of Its Festivals.

Some Excellent Talent Engaged for This Event—Two Beautiful Productions to be Rendered at These Concerts.

The Lima Choral Society has marked out for the citizens of Lima one of its immense festivals; an undertaking not only reflecting great credit upon the society itself but adding luster to the history of our fair city in musical attainments. Comparing Lima with Cincinnati in number of inhabitants, in accommodations for a festival and in wealth to patronize it, the undertaking of our local society is greater than is the giving of the biennial musical festival at Cincinnati next week. In Cincinnati five concerts are given; in Lima but two. The character of the works given in Lima are equal to anything in the larger city.

The standard of the soloists is equally as high and all being given at an expense of about $800, should meet the hearty approval of our citizens generally. The musical society selected as the works to be given the beautiful and exquisite production of A. Goring Thomas, entitled "The Swan and Skylark," a production of strength and beauty with the finest tenor solos ever written, abounding in climaxes, tone painting and effects that are seldom attempted outside of the very largest and highest cultivated choirs. The other work selected is Handel's magnificent oratorio "Sampson."

The Lima society has called to its aid the Ada society and will present a chorus of at least two hundred voices in giving these beautiful works. The date fixed for the festival is June 6th, afternoon and evening, in Fauror opera house, under the able leadership of Prof. Hugh W. Owens.

The choruses have been working diligently upon these masterpieces since Christmas day last on which date it will be remembered Lima and Ada choral union swept the large prize at the Cleveland eisteddfod from all competitors.

Lima will be fortunate in hearing at this festival the finest tenor in the United States, Mr. H. Evan Williams, who so captivated his hearers at his first engagement, singing "Judas Maccabaeus," at Lima some eight years ago. He has made the tenor part in "The Swan and Skylark" the attraction at every festival where he has sung, in Indianapolis, Ind.; Worcester, Mass.; Portland and Bangor, Me.; City of New York, Washington and elsewhere. And he will be equally as strong in the part of Sampson in the oratorio in the evening.

For the baritone part Dr. Carl Duft, of New York City, has been engaged, and who stands the very highest of oratorio singers on this continent, with magnificent voice, fine experience and laurels won at great musical festivals both in the east and west.

For soprano another New York singer has been selected in the person of Mrs. Darwin Root, the soprano in the celebrated choir in which May Stein is the contralto.

The undertaking embraces some $800 of expense in preparation and presentation and, with the magnificent chorus, the pre-eminent soloists and an augmented orchestra, is one that will meet and merit the finest and greatest audience ever gathered in Fauror opera house.

Local theatre goers will be interested in the first appearance in this city of "The Climbers" at the Fauror opera house on next Wednesday, May 14. Mr. Fitch's play treats of society and the aspirations of its members. Every character in the play reaches up for something. Mrs. Hunter and her youngest daughter for social prominence; her son-in-law, Richard Sterling, for wealth through Wall Street manipulations, and her daughter, Blanche Sterling, for happiness and high ideals.

At the time of her father's death Mrs. Sterling learns that her husband is connected with dishonest money dealings. She makes heroic efforts to save him, assisted by a staunch friend of the family, Edward Warden. Love develops between Mrs. Sterling and the latter, but notwithstanding the fact that her husband's contemptible rascality has killed her love for him, she conquers that felt by her for his friend, Warden.

The present indications are that there will be but one more attraction at Fauror's opera house this season after "The Climbers," which will be the famous Byrne Brothers in the "Eight Bells," during the latter part of the month. Amusement seekers will

Rheumatism

The liniment bottle and flannel strip are familiar objects in nearly every household. They are the weapons that have been used for generations to fight old Rheumatism, and are about as effective in the battle with this giant disease as the blunderbuss of our forefathers would be in modern warfare.

Rheumatism is caused by an acid, sour condition of the blood. It is filled with acid, irritating matter that settles in the joints, muscles and nerves, and liniments and oils nor nothing else applied externally can dislodge these gritty, corroding particles. They were deposited there by the blood and can be reached only through the blood. Rubbing with liniments sometimes relieve temporarily the aches and pains, but these are only symptoms which are liable to return with every change of the weather; the real disease lies deeper, the blood and system are infected. Rheumatism cannot be radically and permanently cured until the blood has been purified, and no remedy does this so thoroughly and promptly as S. S. S. It neutralizes the acids and sends a stream of rich, strong blood to the affected parts, which dissolves and washes out all foreign materials, and the sufferer obtains happy relief from the torturing pains.

S. S. S. contains no potash or other mineral, but is a perfect vegetable blood purifier and most exhilarating tonic. Our physicians will advise, without charge, all who write about their case, and we will send free our special book on Rheumatism and its treatment.

of Allen County.

REPUBLICAN SOPHISTRY AND MENDACITY.

In an able editorial upon Senator Beveridge's recent effusion before the Indiana Republican state convention the New Orleans States says:

"The speech delivered by Senator Beveridge before the Republican convention of Indiana showed quite clearly that the trusts and the political party of which he is a young and effluent member are linked together inseparably, for he said they were the result of human thought and energy and were simply indicative of the progress of the race, and he who would destroy these organizations must first abolish. This is the usual sophistry advanced as an apology for the grasping combines, but recent painful object lessons have opened the eyes of the masses of the people to the truth—that trusts are not the result of human thought and energy, but in this country are the product of Republican tariff legislation which enables a few men to control the home market, to stifle all competition and plunder consumers at will.

"From beginning to end the speech of the Hon. Jeremiah Beveridge was made up of sophistry and hypocrisy. Referring to the Philippines, he said that the islands became ours through fate, when it is a fact notorious throughout the civilized world that we got possession of the islands by an outrageous breach of faith with the natives who were our allies in the capture of the city of Manila from the Spaniards, yet the Indiana senator says we must hold them, because to give them up would be 'a policy of deceptitude, a proposition of disgrace,' an argument which is in perfect accord with the moral turpitude of the Republican party. The position taken by Mr. Beveridge on the Philippine question is, with the exception of Senator Hoar and one or two others, the position of every Republican in the senate. It can be summed up in the following words: 'We took the islands away from our allies, the Filipinos, because they were weaker than ourselves; therefore, we must keep them.'

"In defending the imperial policy of the Republican party Senator Beveridge, with a wave of his hand, and a bland smile, entered a denial to all the charges which have been made regarding the conditions in the Philippines. He declared there had been no corruption in the islands, although it is a matter of record that officers of the army and agents of the government have been tried and sent to prison for robbing the government. He also denied the charges of cruelty on the part of American troops, in spite of the fact that not more than two weeks ago a major in the army there was court-martialed for shooting to death a number of helpless natives held as prisoners, who were executed without even the form of a trial. When Senator Beveridge at Indianapolis denied the charges of cruelty in the Philippines and denounced the condemnation of the conduct of the soldiers there as unpatriotic, he did so with the full knowledge of the fact that President Roosevelt had cabled instructions to court martial General Jacob H. Smith for ordering Major Waller of the Marine corps 'to burn and make a howling waste of the island of Samar and to kill every native over ten years old.' Since then General Smith has been ordered before a court martial and the defense has admitted that he issued the now celebrated and infamous order to Major Waller, which the latter brutally executed to the everlasting disgrace of the nation.

In view of the recent testimony before the Senate Philippine committee and other facts that have come to light it is impossible to believe that the people of Indiana will allow themselves to be deceived by the mendacious statements of Senator Beveridge or any other champion of imperialism, no matter how high he may be."

MR. CARNEGIE ON DEMOCRATIC PROSPECTS.

Mr. Andrew Carnegie says the American people are realizing more and more the mistake that has been made in retaining the Philippines as regular possessions of the United States. He expressed the opinion that the Philippines are a big burden to carry and will eventually bring about the downfall of the Republican party, which is responsible for their adoption. He said also that he believes the Democrats have an excellent chance of winning the next presidential election on account of the Philippine blunder, and their chances will be very largely increased if they place the right kind of man at the head of their ticket.

Mr. Carnegie thus expressed himself last Friday as he was about to leave Pittsburgh for New York preparatory to sailing for England, where he will spend the summer. Mr. Carnegie's plain talk lends considerable color to reports which have come recently from the East to the effect that a great many wealthy and prominent men of that section would contribute to the Democratic congressional campaign fund this year because they do not approve the policies of the Republican administration at Washington. Democrats of the wealthy class, who were forced into opposition to their party by the free silver issue in the last two presidential campaigns, have returned to the Democratic fold and are working earnestly to win a notable victory for the party in the congressional elections next fall. The shocking disclosures in the Philippines have greatly strengthened the ranks of the anti-imperialists and they are ready to support the Democrats in opposition to the Philippine policy of the Republicans.—New Orleans States.

England wants peace, but also desires victory. W. Bourke Cockran, who has just returned from a trip to Rome, Egypt and London, said that in his opinion, if the Boers will make an oral concession of defeat, the English will pay them almost any sum to restore their destroyed homes and repair the ravages of the war. In other words, he said, England is ready and anxious to pay a large sum of money to bring about peace in South Africa.

Returns are coming in from the corporations under the Willis capital stock tax law. This tax must be paid during May. The returns thus far received by Secretary of State Laylin indicate that the issued and outstanding stock (on which the tax is paid) will average about 75 per cent of the authorized capital stock. If this holds good, the estimate of $1,000,000 annually from this tax will be fully realized.

The cholera situation in the Philippines is growing worse constantly. The latest reports show 505 cases in Manila, with 308 deaths; in the provinces there have been 1,317 cases and 907 deaths. What is worse is that the natives try to conceal cases in order to avoid sanitary regulations. The utmost care should be taken to prevent the spread of the scourge to this country.

Speaking of General Jacob Smith's order to make Samar "a howling wilderness," the Philadelphia Press says "it will be promptly denounced by all who have a just sense of the good name and honor of the country." And this is the sentiment of most people, regardless of politics.

CHAS. H. ADKINS
Allen County's Candidate for Member of Congress from the Fourth District.

Democratic congressional districts in Ohio are as scarce as it has been possible for gerrymandering Republican legislatures of the state to make them and it is highly important to the future success of Democratic principles that the Democrats of this the Fourth congressional district place in nomination at their convention, which will be held at Celina on the third of June, a candidate in whom they may safely repose the confidence that their district will be well represented in the national congress. It is their duty as Democrats and citizens to place in nomination a true and tried Democrat, who possesses the ability and integrity so infinitely essential to the man who will represent their interests during the next two years when, unless the Democratic members of the national body are constantly and conscientiously watchful and courageous, greed and avarice may dominate in the deeds of congress. A Democrat who has been tried and not found wanting, one who has the courage of his convictions and whose vote and voice shall not be contained

CHAS. H. ADKINS.

Allen County's Candidate for Member of Congress from the Fourth Ohio District.

ated by the influences that threaten the liberties of the common people should be chosen to represent the five counties comprising the Fourth Ohio District and without reflection upon the character or ability of either of his opponents for the nomination, the people of Allen county can conscientiously and cheerfully say to the people of the district that in their candidate, Charles H. Adkins, will be found the right man and the true Democrat. His record as a staunch supporter of William J. Bryan in two national campaigns and as a fearless and aggressive advocate of the cause of the people in the legislative halls at Columbus are sufficient to command, unrestrained, the confidence and support of every loyal Democrat in the district. He was the Democratic member from Allen county who had the courage of his convictions and, true to the principles of his party, drafted and advocated in the state legislature a bill which provided that the dollar held by the farmer and the laborer was as good legal tender for the payment of any debt, public or private, as the gold held by the money brokers of Wall and Lombard streets.

Chas. H. Adkins, the choice of the Democracy of Allen county for congress at the Fourth Congressional District convention to be held at Celina, Ohio, June 3rd, was born in McCreary township, Pickaway county, Ohio, and is thirty-four years of age. His boy-hood days were spent upon the farm. He attended the district school and was always an industrious student. He began teaching school at the age of nineteen years and soon gained the reputation of being an excellent teacher and a ready public speaker. He completed his education at the Ohio Normal University at Ada, Ohio, receiving the degree of LL. B., was admitted to practice law in 1892 and located at Lima, Ohio, where he has since followed the practice of law with success. Mr. Adkins has always been a warm admirer of Wm. J. Bryan. He is a strong advocate of an incessant worker for Democratic principles, having delivered many speeches in Allen and adjoining counties in the campaigns of 96 and 1900. His ability as an orator and public speaker and his fairness as an advocate of Democratic principles has gained for him a host of warm friends and admirers. The Democracy were so well pleased with him that in 1897 at the age of twenty-nine years he was nominated for representative and elected on the Democratic ticket and was re-elected in 1899. His record in the general assembly of Ohio is one that his constituents can always be proud of. He was known there as a great friend of the laboring man and his vote is recorded on all labor legislation on the side of the toilers, he having at the close of his service in the legislature received a vote of thanks from the representatives present in the legislature of the state. During his time of service in the legislature he introduced and had passed many important bills. He served during both his terms in the legislature on the finance and other important committees. All bills affecting the public institutions of the state, as well as all bills providing for the revenues of the state originate in this committee, and so well was the committee work done that its work was indorsed unanimously by both sides of the house. Mr. Adkins' father, who is a farmer, from Pickaway county, Ohio, served in the house during his last term as the member from Pickaway county, being the first time in the history of the state that father and son sit side by side in the legislature. They were often found opposing each other in matters of legislation. No member of the house had more friends on both sides of the chamber than Mr. Adkins, caused by his honesty, integrity and affability. He was married in 1892 to Miss Lora Mathews, of Ada, Ohio. His family consists of himself, wife, daughter and one son. Mr. Adkins is a self made man, having built himself up by his own efforts and industry. He is young, aggressive and energetic and is acquainted with the wants and needs of the people. He is free from any influences that would make him other than a safe and desirable candidate for congress. He is an excellent orator, a good leader and if nominated, the Democracy of the Fourth district can look for a rousing Democratic majority in Allen county and the district. In presenting his name, we ask your consideration because in our opinion he is most generously endowed with the many essential elements that should combine in a first class member of the national congress. He has the courage of his convictions. To his natural ability and character, traits have been added, the attainments acquired by thoughtful study, activity in his profession and all the broadening influences of mind and heart that make men worthy of the confidence of their fellow-men and of support for positions of trust, honor and leadership.

Lima Boys Pleased With Their Surroundings.

Conductor Wise, Victim of a Vicious Assault at Ottawa.

When Two Findlay Scamps, Filled With Boze, Struck Him in the Face With a Lump of Coal.

The Lima C. H. & D. train dispatchers who were transferred to Dayton are very much pleased with their present surroundings, their offices being in the handsome new union depot where every comfort and convenience is at hand. They are entirely separated from the other departments and access cannot be had to the dispatchers office without passing through the superintendent's department where all business with the trainmen is transacted.

The new change has been made without the slightest hitch in the operation of the various branches of the road and every department is handling the affairs of the company as though the revolution had never occurred.

A Rascally Deed.

Two young men, of Findlay, not members of the high school, got into serious trouble at Ottawa, and were locked up. They were intoxicated and Conductor Wise of the Findlay, Ft. Wayne and Western, put them off the train for using vulgar and insulting language. They resisted his interference and one of them hurled a chunk of coal at the conductor, which struck him full in the face, inflicting a very bad wound.

The boys, who were Charles Carney and Frank Woods, both were held to appear before Mayor Pox yesterday morning, who fined them each $6 and costs. Relatives came to their assistance and they were released. Conductor Wise, who is well known in Lima, had to remain in Ottawa, and have his injury attended to.

Van Wert Up in Arms.

The C. H. & D. railroad management is denounced in unmeasured terms by all Van Wert to-day. The special train provided for the return trip between Ottawa and Lima was sidetracked three times to give the right-of-way to another passenger train and two freight trains carrying the Robinson circus. The passenger train was probably entitled to the preference but trains loaded with cages of wild brutes, human and beastly, should not have had precedence over a train load of pupils representing the public schools of Northwestern Ohio. The delay caused the Van Wert party to miss the Pennsylvania west bound train, although it was held thirty-five minutes at Lima, and one hundred and sixty odd men, women and boys, unable to secure accommodations at the hotels, were compelled to loiter about all night. The men in charge of the Pennsylvania passenger depot at Lima, could have relieved the discomforting situation in a large degree had they been inclined to comply with a request for heat in the depot.—Van Wert Bulletin.

VOLCANOES ACTIVE.

Belair for refuge. The tremendous noises, which were continually increasing, were heard in neighboring islands 200 miles away. At midday the eruptions ejected enormous columns of steam vapor rising majestically eight miles high and expanding into wonderful shapes, resembling enormous conical flowers, gigantic wheels and beautiful flower forms, all streaked up and down and crosswise with vivid flashes of lightning, awing the beholder and impressing the mind with fear. The mountain labored to rid itself of mass of molten lava, which later flowed over, in six streams, down the side of the volcano, and the greater noises following united in one continuous roar all evening, through the night to Thursday morning, accompanied with black rain, falling dust, and fatilla scoria, attended with midnight darkness all Wednesday, creating feelings of fear and anxious suspense. On the morning of Friday there was a fresh eruption and ejections of lava matter, more dust covering the island, in some places two feet deep.

Hills Covered With Refugees.

Paris, May 12.—The Temps, referring to the destruction of St. Pierre, says: "We believe, from the information received here from the island of Martinique (meaning doubtless the official dispatches) that the disaster surpasses all that imagination can conceive. The whole northeastern portion of the island is laid waste. Three large communities, exclusive of St. Pierre, have been destroyed. All the hills surrounding Le Carbet and Le Precheur, near St. Pierre, are covered with refugees to the number of about 5,000, who are being taken away gradually. In the meanwhile provisions are being conveyed to them. Of the 30 persons who were originally rescued by the French cruiser Sachet, the majority were fearfully burned, and nine died while on their way to the hospital. The corpses which are heaped in the ruins of St. Pierre are not only completely naked, but are frightfully mutilated."

Loss Heavy on St. Vincent.

St. Thomas, D. W. I., May 12.—Advices received here from the island of St. Dominica say that boats arriving there report that many persons were drowned while crossing to Dominica from the island of Martinique, where some of the out parishes have been inundated. The eruption of Mount Pelée (Martinique) continues. The lava is progressing northward. The whole northern region is now a rocky waste, denuded of vegetation. Reports from the islands of St. Vincent say that up to the afternoon of Friday last over 500 deaths had occurred there owing to the volcanic outbreak in that island. It is reported here that Fort De France (Martinique) is threatened. Great tension prevails everywhere throughout the West Indies.

Boiling Lake Disappears.

St. Thomas, D. W. I., May 12.—A dispatch just received here from the island of Dominica, B. W. I., says that a man who has just returned from the boiling lake district of that island found that the water had disappeared, and that from a vent 10 feet in diameter in the center was rising a column of steam to a height of 20 feet before spreading into the atmosphere. That district otherwise was apparently unchanged, but the sulphur gases were very strong.

President Palma at Havana.

Havana, May 12.—The steamer Julia, with President-elect Estrada Palma and his party on board, arrived here, and cheers went up from thousands on shore opposite Morro castle. The crowd cheered for the new president and for the Cuban flag, which was hoisted over the famous fortress for the first time. When he arrived at the wharf the president-elect was welcomed by Vice President Esteve in a brief speech. A pretty feature of the reception here was Senator Estrada Palma's welcome by 23 young Cuban women dressed in costumes representing the American republics. Senator Durio, who represented Cuba, delivered an address and read a poem. Governor General Wood, his staff and the secretaries received Senator Estrada Palma at the palace. Receptions and a banquet followed.

Horrible Murder.

Bridgeport, Conn., May 12.—Lawrence Bressano, a fireman in the Atlantic hotel, crept into the room, and splashed the skull of Michael Tornish, the chef, with a meat cleaver. He then took a large butcher knife and slashed the body, cutting off the nose and ears, gouging out the eyes and cutting straight after strip of flesh off the face of the victim. When the upper part of the body was unrecognizable, Bressano jumped on it and danced from the head to the feet until the arrival of the police, who were attracted by the frenzied yells of the murderer. Bressano at police headquarters acknowledged the murder, and said he felt better for having committed it. It is believed that trouble over a woman led him to kill his fellow workman.

GORDON

No Longer Aspires to Statesmanship

But Prefers to Return to Life of a Business Man.

After the End of the Present Session He Will Follow the Proceedings of Congress at Long Range.

The Toledo Blade's Washington correspondent sends the following from the capitol city:

"Representative Gordon, of Ohio, thinks it is better to be a man of business than a statesman. 'At least,' he says, 'I know I can be a man of business and I am sure I can never be a statesman.' Therefore, he is going to quit congress.

Mr. Gordon is one of the best known members of the house, but he has come to the conclusion that fame is not everything. He wants to make money, and, he says, if he does not get all the money he wants in the next five years it will not be because he lacks opportunity. He is interested in many enterprises. Out in St. Marys, O., where he has a home, he is engaged in the milling business and is also a partner in a commercial house which sells everything on wheels, from a baby carriage and a bicycle to a threshing machine. He is also interested in trolley lines in Michigan, and lately he has purchased a large block of stock in a food company at Battle Creek, Mich. All these affairs demand his attention, and while he likes Washington and enjoys congressional life, his other interests offer too much in the way of making him a millionaire to be ignored.

"I am going to follow the proceedings of congress at long range after the end of this session," he said yesterday.

SHADOW

Of Death Crept in Without Warning.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Albert, of 644 north Elizabeth street, have suffered an irreparable loss in the death of their only child, Herbert Philip Albert, which occurred at 2 o'clock Sunday morning. The shock is all the harder to bear for the reason that the end came suddenly and unexpectedly and there was scarcely any preparation for the loss they have sustained. The child was 13 months of age and in good health up until noon Saturday, when a sudden attack of indigestion took an acute form and baffled the knowledge of the attending physician. The services attending the burial were conducted this afternoon at two o'clock by Rev. Land, of the German Reformed church, at the grief-stricken home, and the remains laid to rest in Greenlawn.

Which Will be Held in That Town Early in June—Large Attendance Expected.

COLUMBUS GROVE, May 12.—The local chapter, Epworth League, is making arrangements for the annual meeting of the Findlay district, Epworth League convention, to be held in the Methodist Episcopal church, in this city on June 10 and 11. The first session will be held on Tuesday afternoon, and will be followed by the evening session. At the close of this session, an informal reception will be tendered the visiting delegates, and a pleasant social time is in anticipation. Refreshments will be served. The sessions on Wednesday will be given over to the regular program, including the business of the morning, and the hearing of the reports of the different chapters. Both the Tuesday and Wednesday evening meetings will be addressed by prominent Methodist divines. The district includes some twenty chapters, and an attendance of about 200 visitors is expected. Epworth county is favored with two Epworth League gatherings this year, since the annual convention of the Delaware district will be held in Trinity M. E. church, Ottawa, O., on Monday and Tuesday of the same week. Rev. (Dr.) James W. Bashford, president of Delaware college, Delaware, O., and Rev. E. D. Whitlock, of Delaware, will be among the principal speakers.

Bogart has been connected with the local post-office for some time past, and is also assistant carrier on route No. 1. He will not take charge until July 1, and in the meantime, Isaac Bunn, the assistant under D. R. Palmer, whose position Bogart fills, will remain in charge as heretofore.

Cridersville, May 12.—The Cridersville Driving Park Association has completed their half-mile race track in Ezra De Long's park and matinee races will soon be held every two weeks. Stables are now being erected and a grandstand to seat several hundred people is in course of construction. Cridersville was the first town in this section to have a matinee club, same being organized eight years ago. New officers have been elected this spring, who, with the most respectable citizens of this community, will see that first class attractions are held. There is a great number of fine road horses in this vicinity that will make a good showing if put on the track. Among them are two fillies owned by Shaffer Bros., that are very handsome and promising; T. G. McClintock has a very speedy mare by Nerval, which he has trained to perfection; Wm. McDougall has two by Nerval and three by Noleus Voleus. All very promising and fine looking; Charles Reichelderfer has a very fine, large and speedy pacer that is reported to have made a quarter mile in 20 1/2 seconds; Billy McClintock has a very speedy black pacer mare, bred in the Hoosier state; then there is Dennis Harper's black pacer. Dennis refused to say anything about this elegant horse, but says he will wait and let the horse do the talking for himself. Wm. McCary has a fine horse, Arbeter Jr., by Arbeter, 2:21. "Billy" is a lover of sport and has two other fine ones besides his stallion, that are very speedy. Mr. Larch has quite a number of horses that will soon make a record for themselves; D. C. Dunn has a large speedy bay gelding and expects to have several others in the near future; Charles Vinate has a speedy black road mare, bred by Arbeter Jr., for which an offer of $325 was recently refused by him; John R. Hooker has a fine bay mare by Joe Irvin, also a two-year-old filly out of this mare, by Nerval; C. S. Pasig has Ellipse, 2:14 1/2, by Demv Prince, a very promising horse. There are many others that will be entered into the races from time to time. Sportsmen from Lima, Wapakoneta, Sidney, Piqua, St. Marys and various other neighboring towns express a willingness to help the matter along, and many have already contributed liberally to the project. Mr. J. W. Rowlands, of Lima, presented a beautiful chair to the association and many other useful articles have been given by business men. The first meet will be given in a few weeks, of which notice will be given later.

TOUCHING

Incident of the Faith of a Filipino

Whose Son Was Ordained by Bishop Thoburn and is Now Preaching.

Dr. Pearson, field agent for the American Bible Society in his Bible conference address told of Mr. Paulino Lyamora Y. Corro, a Filipino, who received a copy of the bible in the Spanish language some eighteen years ago, which he read with interest, embraced and sought to live in accord with its teachings. He taught it to his family who likewise accepted and exemplified its truths in their lives. His changed religious views awakened opposition, which culminated in his banishment to an island in the Mediterranean from which, after more than a year's exile, he was liberated. He returned home to Manila. His son, to whom he had given a good education, was fully devoted to the religion of the Bible.

Bishop Thoburn, who came to Manila after its occupation by our army, secured a reading room and place for holding religious meetings for the soldiers and was seeking for one to take charge of the religious services. On the recommendation of others he asked the returned Filipino exile to do so. He declined, but said "There's my son, Nicholas, he speaks the language readily, he can talk, ask him." The Bishop in an interview with the son, was highly pleased to find him intelligent, fluent in speech, exemplary in life, deeply spirited and well versed in the bible. He sent a cable message to Dr. Leonard, missionary secretary of New York, to have the young man admitted on trial in the traveling connection of an annual conference of the M. E. church; recommended for Deacon's and Elder's orders under the missionary rule and transferred to the India and Malaysia conference.

Dr. Leonard immediately sent Bishop Thoburn's request by telegram to Bishop Vincent who was presiding at a conference in Kansas. The request was granted. On the afternoon of that day, Bishop Thoburn received the boys were Charles, Carney, night Bishop Thoburn in the presence of an audience, in which were his father and mother, ordained the young man. His parents were overcome with joy, the father with tears streaming down his cheeks, embracing his son, exclaimed, "I never expected to see this day." That son is now pastor of a congregation of one hundred Filipinos. Let us help on the work of Bible distribution in all lands through the Bible Society, of which the Allen County Bible Society is an auxiliary.

Its recently elected officers for the year are Rev. P. H. Land, president; Rev. D. Leplay, Rev. J. G. Thomas, Rev. L. C. Read, vice presidents; L. H. Kibby, treasurer; Miss Ruth Ashton, depository; Prof. Howard Peary, auditor; W. F. Maltbie, secretary.

UNCLE SAM WINS OUT

Russia Will Restore Manchuria to China Without Reserve.

SOLVES FAR EASTERN PROBLEM.

Result Is a Triumph For American Diplomacy and "Open Door" Policy—By Terms of New Treaty Russia Will Surrender Exclusive Privileges.

International news of the highest importance reached diplomatic Washington the other day. It indicates that the far eastern problem has been solved and that the menace to the world's peace which has so long held like a cloud on the Asiatic horizon has at last been removed. If this shall prove to be the case, and there seems little reason to doubt it, American diplomacy must be given credit for the great work.

The news relates to the terms of the new treaty between Russia and China. Various reports concerning this important compact have been in circulation both in the United States and Europe, but Walter Wellman, the Washington correspondent of the Chicago Record-Herald, is now able to give the salient contents of that document, a full copy of which is expected at Washington in a short time.

First—Russia agrees to restore the civil administration of Manchuria without reserve to the Chinese empire.

Second—Russia agrees to evacuate Manchuria completely, so far as military or civil control is concerned, within one year from the date of the treaty.

Third—Russia agrees to remove her army, with a reservation of a small force for guarding the Russian railway, within one year, withdrawing a part of the troops in four months, another part in eight months and the final quota in twelve months.

Fourth—Russia surrenders all claim to exclusive railway and mining privileges in Manchuria and pledges herself and China to the "open door" principle in that province.

The meaning of this is that Russia surrenders Manchuria and turns the whole province back to China. It has no other meaning in the eyes of the foreign office. This also is the view expressed by the Russian government and by Russian ambassadors in various capitals. The honor of the Russian government is pledged to this evacuation. And when the evacuation is accomplished and Manchuria has been turned over to the full sovereignty of the Chinese empire, as every one has a right to expect it will be according to the terms of the solemn agreement, the far eastern problem may be regarded as well nigh solved.

It was Russia's persistent occupation of Manchuria that threatened the peace of the world, for Manchuria was the key to the whole Chinese situation. As long as Russia held that province in the grip of 90,000 soldiers, as long as Russia held not only military sway, but administered the civil government, the integrity of the Chinese empire was threatened. If Russia could thus seize and hold Manchuria, Korea was not safe from a similar acquisition north China itself. Hence the agreement of Russia to surrender the province and withdraw her troops is taken throughout the world as a sign of peace, as an earnest that Muscovite ambition to overrun the most of eastern Asia and master the Chinese empire has at last been abandoned, temporarily if not permanently.

"You should be very proud of your foreign office," said Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador to Washington, a few days ago, speaking to an American gentleman who called at the embassy. "Secretary Hay has done more than any other living man to solve the eastern problem. All the powers have now adopted his platform for the integrity of the Chinese empire and the 'open door'."

Praise from Count Cassini is praise indeed. But other diplomats echo it. They point out that it was Secretary Hay who injected into the controversy over China's future the moral idea which has proved to be the key to the whole complicated problem. This he did in October, 1899, when the world first learned that the principle of the open door had been proclaimed by the American government. That principle the United States has stuck to through all the changes and complications of the ensuing years.

Since then China has passed through the throes of a revolution which for a time threatened the success of the American policy. Now and then appearances indicated that the cause was lost and that greed and spoliation would supplant the doctrine of equal rights for the nations in the Chinese empire. Germany has played a fast and loose game, and France has consistently supported Russia. Great Britain seemed hopelessly involved elsewhere. Japan was not big enough to stem the tide alone. Ridicule was heaped upon the open door programme. It was everywhere predicted that in China's revolutionary turmoil Russia would find the opportunity not only to hold Manchuria, but to advance, step by step, to greater conquests.

But there is tremendous power in a moral principle when it is constantly pushed to the front by an able statesman speaking for a nation like the United States. This is what Mr. Hay did. He did it not theoretically, not with bluster, but with fact and caution and always with persistence. As it was Russia's policy to creep with stealthy force and a combination of soldiers and railways over the coveted territory, so it was Mr. Hay's policy to ever hold that moral principle up as a warning of "No thoroughfare."

Step by step he secured pledges, insistence and meaningless promises at first, but serving as foundations to more valuable promises to be secured later. There he built up his fabric, securing the half hearted co-operation of some powers, the sincere support of others. But every expression of assent strengthened the case. Every new pledge on Russia's part, with whatever degree of good faith given, made it the more difficult to repudiate the underlying principle. Through the occupation of Peking by the allied troops and the long negotiations which followed the fate of China and of the American policy trembled in the balance. But firmness on the part of the United States government and the support of Great Britain and Japan found a way through that crisis.

Early in the present year a second crisis was reached. Russia was seeking a firmer hold on Manchuria, indicative of a more aggressive policy as to the whole problem. A new treaty with China was under consideration, a treaty which if concluded would place in Russian hands absolute control of all railway, mining and commercial privileges of the province. At this juncture Secretary Hay came forward with his memorable note of Feb. 1. He defined the attitude of the United States with almost startling diplomatic frankness. He declared that an agreement "whereby China gave any corporation or company, a Russian device, the exclusive privilege of opening mines, establishing railroads or in any other way industrially developing Manchuria can but be viewed with the gravest concern by the government of the United States."

He added that such an agreement constituted a monopoly, "which is a distinct breach of the stipulation of the treaties between China and the foreign powers." He called the attention of the Russian government to the repeated pledges which it had given and closed with an expression of the hope that the governments of China and Russia would take such measures as would "relieve the just and natural anxiety of the United States."

This note produced a profound impression throughout the world. It was an application of the principle of equal rights and equal opportunity in a way so clear and unmistakable that it compelled attention.

Soon there followed a third crisis. The United States had supplied the principle. Now Great Britain and Japan concluded an alliance which pledged to this principle a support almost threatening in its aspect. In plain language the allies threatened war if Russia did not give up her pretensions to Korea. Still Russia did not yield. She turned to the other powers to ascertain their attitude in case of hostilities. France, as usual, was pliant. Germany was looking out for German interests and stood ready to profit by any upheaval, to demand a price for any action that might be requested of her. But what would the United States do? Would the United States take any part in the struggle? Would the American government give material aid to the allied powers which stood for the American principle?

Almost every day Count Cassini, the astute Russian ambassador, was at the state department. Tactfully, with diplomatic euphemisms, he pressed his inquiries. It is quite probable that the issue of peace or war hung upon the answer. If the United States was willing to declare its intention to pursue the traditional American policy and avoid all entanglements in the other world, Russia would have felt free to pursue her way in the far east with the risk of war. With the United States surely on her side, with her allies, France and Germany probably, facing antagonistic alliance.

But the answer of the United States was that it could give no pledges. Following its usual policy, this government declined to say what it would or would not do in a given emergency. It would be guided by self interest. It would meet them as in its judgment seemed best. Unable to reckon upon the probable course of the United States, Russia felt constrained to adopt a conservative course. She could not defy the world. The new treaty with China, which amounts to a surrender on the part of Russia, quickly followed.

There is little reason to doubt that, for the present at least, peace in the far east has been secured, and the United States is entitled to the credit of it. Appearances indicate that Russia's change of policy is sincere and permanent. The new Russian policy is commercial rather than political and military.

Incredulosity as to Russia's sincerity in her agreement to surrender political control of Manchuria is rife. It must be admitted. Many diplomats are utterly unable to believe in treaty will be honored in anything more than a nominal way. But such is the treaty, such are the obligations and such is the situation with which the Russian government is confronted. All the indications are that so far as this decade at least is concerned Russia's advances have been stopped, and the moral principle maintained by the United States has proved stronger than an old world policy of selfishness. The European powers are not only standing on the platform of Secretary Hay, but they are using his language in the expression of their purposes and in the declaration of their adhesion to the "open door" principle of equal rights and equal opportunities.

The Trouble of It.
Trouble about the springtime.
When the river's clear and cool
An' a fellow feels like fishin'.
He's a-follerin' the muse.
All the busy day
It's the furrow's weary way.
Whilst the birds in breezy freedom are a-singin' of the May!

An' he trifles with salvation.
An' he breaks the Golden Rule
On the blossomy plantation.
Single sprigs hangs to the muse!
For all the busy day
It's the furrow's weary way.
Whilst the birds in happy chorus are a-singin' of the May!

MONEY OF IMMIGRANTS

What the Hordes From Europe Are Bringing In.

AVERAGE OF EACH ONE IS SMALL

The French Headed the List Last Year—Figures of March—Marked Difference Between Northern and Southern Italians—Considerable Total in a Year.

A pleasant faced little man with mild blue eyes that looked forth trustfully at the strange sights of the new world stood in front of the money changers' booth in the big immigration building on Ellis Island, says the New York Evening Post. His wife, a typical German woman, and three children formed a patient waiting group behind him. The man wore a suit of "coopers' jeans," stained and worn, top boots and the high peaked cap of the German peasant. He was fumbling through the pockets and in the hidden recesses of his garments and producing money. Thalers, marks, imperial treasury notes and goldpieces fell from his dirty fingers until a tidy little heap was lying on the counter.

Some of the immigration officers standing near looked on in amusement. The little German had seemed peculiarly unproductive soil for such a harvest. When he had done with his searching, the immigrant had something over $900 to be converted into United States treasury notes. He grinned cheerfully when the pale bill of crisp green bills was handed to him and, opening his shirt, stowed the roll where he could feel it next his body. He was an exceptionally wealthy immigrant. It is rarely that such a comparatively large sum is shown by any of the Europeans who become citizens via Ellis Island and the barge office.

One of the last things asked the newly arrived at Ellis Island just before their departure is whether they have any money to be changed. They are not compelled to change it, and many refuse for fear of being cheated. Thousands of others avail themselves of the money changer's services. His booth is at the end of the long examination room and at the head of the triple flight of stairs leading down to the exit of the building to the boat landing. All day long it is a scene of rushing activity.

When the immigrants are examined, they are asked to show what money they have. Some of them are crafty and do not show all they have. Others are more trusting and willingly display their petty hoardings. The money is carefully counted, a record taken and restored to them.

During the fiscal year ending June 30, 1901, there were landed at this port 388,931 immigrants. The money they showed to the examiners amounted to $5,490,080, an average of $14.12. Classified by nationalities, the French led the others, with an average of $39.37. The Hebrews stood at the foot of the list, bringing on an average $8.53. The Germans followed the French, with an average of $31.14. The other nationalities stood in the list as follows:

Nationality	Average per capita.
Italians (northern)	$53.22
Bohemian and Moravian	22.78
Irish	17.36
Scandinavian	17.19
Armenian	15.75
Croatian and Dalmatian	15.54
Slovak	15.10
Greek	12.21
Syrian	10.96
Magyar	8.57
Italian (south)	8.57

The difference between the Italians from the northern and those from the southern section of the peninsula as shown in the amount of money they bring into the country is marked. The northern Italians are said to make a superior class of citizens. Possibly the most surprising fact shown in the table is the high position taken by the Bohemians and Moravians.

In the month of March 57,175 immigrants were landed at Ellis Island. They had, or at least they showed to the examiners, sums that footed up $811,013. Of the entire number 44,172 had less than $30 each in their possession, and 4,428 had that sum or over. The following table gives the nationalities of the immigrants who landed in March, the number of each nationality and the amount of money shown:

Nationality	No. shown.	Money.
Armenian	52	$1,115
Bohemian and Moravian	259	12,515
Bulgarian, Serbian and Montenegrin	118	1,877
Croatian and Slovenian	2,489	31,421
Dalmatian, Bosnian and Herzegovinian	137	1,851
Dutch and Flemish	626	12,224
English	239	12,103
French	231	6,248
German	4,291	114,208
Greek	1,232	20,493
Hebrew	2,530	25,138
Irish	826	20,050
Italian (north)	3,641	72,232
Magyar	1,785	15,522
Polish	2,072	25,324
Scandinavian	7,797	79,755
Scottish	3,823	72,183
Slovak	1,113	2,549
Syrian	3,359	47,657
Turkish	5	114

For the next two months, now that the spring rush is on, all these figures will increase largely. Thousands of Greeks and Italians are coming in weekly.

New Table Decoration.

Fountains are now fashionable for table centers, and a beautiful design has lately been introduced. In the center is a silver statuette representing Leda and the swan, and all around the bowl are water lilies, which are supplied with electric light.

I have sold Chamberlain's Cough, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy for years, and would rather be out of coffee and sugar than it. I sold five bottles of it yesterday to three others that could go no farther, and they are at work again this morning.—H. R. Phelps, Plymouth, Oklahoma. Whooping Cough.

A woman who has had experience with this disease, tells how to prevent any dangerous consequences from it. She says: Our three children took whooping cough last summer, our baby being only three months old, and owing to our giving them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, they lost none of their plumpness and came out in much better health than other children whose parents did not use this remedy. Our oldest little girl would call lustily for cough syrup between whoops.—Jessie Pinkley Hall, Springfield, Ala. This remedy is for sale by Wm. M. Melville, old post office corner.

GEN. SMITH'S CAREER.

Personality of the Officer Tried by Court Martial.

PHILIPPINE SWEATBOX INVENTOR

One of the Most Rugged and Picturesque Figures in the United States Service—How He Erupted an Ambush Party—His Line of Defense.

From an intimate friend of General J. H. Smith, who has just been tried by court martial in Manila on the charge of "conduct prejudicial to good order and discipline," a New York World representative has obtained facts bearing on his career and personality which are of exceptional and timely interest.

Jacob Henry Smith is his name. His intimates call him Jakey. He has been on the firing line always—in the civil war, in Indian campaigns, around Santiago in 1898 and in the Philippines.

He is the strictest of disciplinarians, but his soldiers like him. They say he is fair and just, and they know he is ever ready to lead when danger is to be faced. He never orders a man to go where he won't go himself. He has proved that time and time again, but notably during the Santiago campaign, when, at the head of his regiment at the taking of San Juan Hill—he was a lieutenant colonel then—he received a wound in the breast sufficient to drive one of less determined courage from the field. He was ordered to the rear, but disobeyed the order and continued with his men on active service until the surrender of the Spanish.

He explained his disobedience by saying that he had a number of recruits in his regiment, and he could not be sure of them unless he was there to keep his eye on them. He has a vehement way of saying exactly what he means and expressing his opinion in the most vigorous language. So he gained the sobriquet of "Hot Mouthed Jakey."

He entered the service at the age of twenty-one as a first lieutenant in the Second Kentucky volunteers June 4, 1861, was promoted to captain Jan. 8, 1862, and was honorably mustered out June 21, 1863. The next day, June 30, 1863, he was appointed captain in the Veteran Reserve corps and was honorably mustered out Oct. 21, 1865. He was brevetted a major March 7, 1867, for gallant conduct at the battle of Shiloh, where he was severely wounded, and the same day was appointed captain in the Thirteenth infantry in the regular service.

In May, 1898, he was appointed a major and judge advocate, but this appointment was afterward revoked by the president. He was assigned as a captain to the Nineteenth infantry Dec. 12, 1898; promoted to major in the Second and infantry Nov. 25, 1899; lieutenant colonel of the Twelfth infantry June 30, 1898; colonel of the Seventeenth infantry Oct. 20, 1899, and brigadier general of volunteers June 1, 1900. He has done notable work in the Philippines and has been in the field nearly the whole time while in the islands.

General Smith was the inventor of the celebrated "sweatbox" at Bautista, in the province of Pangasinan, in which insurgents were placed to force confession from them. This "sweatbox" was built log cabin style on an open plain of steel rails taken from an railroad. This box was less than ten feet square. General Smith would fill it with insurgents. When the hot tropical sun began to shine, the rails attracted the sun's rays and became so hot that it was impossible to touch them with the naked hand. Some air got between the cracks and joints of the rails, but usually the temperature was so high that no insurgent could stand it more than a day. It was soon after evolving this invention that General Smith was made brigadier general of volunteers.

While in command at Bautista General Smith was decidedly unpopular with the natives because of the severity of his rule. Some of the insurgent leaders planned to ambush and kill him. He was invited to attend a grand ball or dance to be given by some of the leading natives who were insurgent sympathizers. It was planned that while General Smith was riding along the road en route to the ball he was to be ambushed and either killed or captured by thirty insurgents.

General Smith learned of the plans from his scouts, but kept the matter secret. He continued his preparation for attending the dance, and none of the insurgent sympathizers became suspicious. He sent word during the afternoon that he would attend the dance that night. The insurgents were stationed in ambush along the road side.

General Smith arranged that a company of his regiment, the Seventeenth infantry, should join him after he had left town. He started out alone and was joined by his command. When opposite the place he was to be ambushed, the soldiers fell upon the insurgents and either killed them or captured the entire command.

While in command of the Twelfth infantry he was sent in advance of General MacArthur to take the town of Angeles, where he had a very hard fight. Smith was in command of but two battalions, and the fighting at Angeles was quite severe. He originated a method which afterward was generally adopted throughout the army operating in the Philippines. After taking the town of Angeles Colonel Smith issued an order that no Filipino should be allowed to leave the place and that those who had left could not re-enter the town. Colonel Smith stationed outposts around Angeles, with orders to shoot without challenging any native who tried to enter the town. This was interpreted by the men to mean that they were to shoot at Filipinos immediately they came in sight. The order was literally carried out, and it is a matter of record in the Philippines that while General Smith held Angeles not a single native either entered or left the place.

General Smith's defense was based on general orders No. 103, issued in 1893 and since adopted and issued as instructions for the government of armies in the field. Concerning retaliation the order says:

"The law of war can no more wholly dispense with retaliation than can the law of nations of which it is a branch. Yet civilized nations acknowledge retaliation as the sternest feature of war. A reckless enemy often leaves to his opponent no means of securing himself against the repetition of barbarous outrage. Retaliation, therefore, will never be resorted to as a measure of mere revenge, but only as a means of protective retribution and, moreover, cautiously and unavoidably—that is to say, retaliation shall be resorted to after careful inquiry into the real occurrence and the character of the misdeeds that may demand retribution."

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured After Fourteen Years of Suffering. "I have been afflicted with sciatic rheumatism for fourteen years," says Josh Edgar, of Germantown, Cal. "I was unable to be around but constantly suffered. I tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured, and I am happy to say it has not since returned." Why not use this liniment and get well? It is for sale by Wm. M. Melville, old post office corner.

Mrs. Newed—Just think of it, dear. I made every bit of this cake with my own hands.

Biliousness is a condition characterized by a disturbance of the digestive organs. The stomach is debilitated, the liver torpid, the bowels constipated. There is a loathing of food, pains in the bowels, dizziness, coated tongue and vomiting, first of the undigested or partially digested food and then of bile. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets allay the disturbances of the stomach and create a healthy appetite. They also tone up the liver to a healthy action and regulate the bowels. Try them and you are certain to be much pleased with the result. For sale by Wm. M. Melville, old post office corner.

MILITARY PARADISE

HOW GOVERNORS ISLAND, NEW YORK, WILL BE TRANSFORMED.

Plans Provide For Making It the Finest Army Post in the Country. Old Buildings to Be Razed and New Ones Erected.

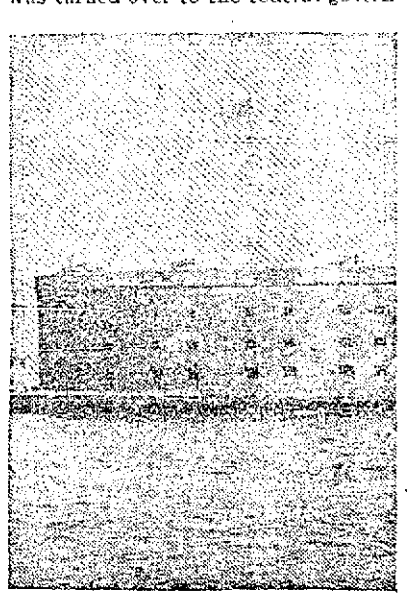

Governors Island, the military reservation in upper New York bay, is to be more than doubled in size and transformed into the finest army post in the country. When the plans for improving the post, which have been approved by Secretary Root, are fully executed, it will be as though nearly every building now on the island had been swept away and the war department had planned its post for entirely new ground.

It is the intention of the war department to have a full regiment on duty at Governors Island all the time. In time of war with a foreign nation facilities will be afforded for taking care of a brigade in tents. There will be deep water docks, and transports can load and unload right at the government piers. There will be warehouses for storing provisions and other stores intended for shipment and the general use of the army.

The improvements provide for an outlay of $1,500,000. They contemplate an addition of sixty acres to the present area, so that the new island will be 150 acres in extent. On the northwest corner of the island is the ancient Castle Williams, a brick fort with three tiers of casemates. To the south are Fort Columbus and the quarters for officers and men.

Fort Columbus is in the center of the island. Here is quartered a company of artillery. This fort and Castle Williams will be preserved alone out of the large assortment of structures belonging to the post. Castle Williams is an army prison and is valuable to the government for both material and sentimental considerations. It was erected in 1811 and is one of the most interesting sights in New York harbor.

The other buildings were erected at different times, and no effort was made to have them conform to any generally harmonious scheme. The island was turned over to the federal government by New York city at a critical period of the nation's history. It was about the year 1808, when war was threatened with Great Britain.

The work means the construction of 5,800 linear feet of crib dike work. It means, too, that the space so inclosed will require more than 4,000,000 cubic yards of sand to fill it. It means decided improvements all along the waterfront of the present island, with a new wharf and increased depth of water near Castle Williams. It is planned to reclaim about sixty acres from the bay. The greater part of the rock now being taken from the New York rapid transit subway is being dumped into the bay for the purposes of this reclamation.

According to the plans which have been perfected, all the remnants of buildings left from the various regimes through which the island has passed will be torn down in time. The structures which will take their places will skirt the island all the way around it.

The buildings which will be used for quarters for officers and men will conform to the plans utilized for other posts recently equipped by the government. Each captain's house occupies just so much room and likewise as to the other officers. It is planned that the commanding officer of the department of the east, who is located on the island, shall have quarters befitting his rank and that a modern building shall be erected for the headquarters themselves.

On the easterly side of the island will be a line of wharves. Great storehouses will be erected on these wharves to be filled with provisions in case of war. These piers will enable transports to take on and land troops, arms and ammunition with the greatest possible speed. The wharves and stores will, in brief, give accommodations for every branch of the army service of the United States. They will entirely obviate the difficulties encountered during the war with Spain in the matter of receiving and landing troops and stores.

At the present time the island accommodates only 400 men. The new plans will afford accommodations for 1,200 men, or a full regiment, permanently. Inside of the grand circle of buildings will be a great open plain for use as a parade ground in times of peace, and affording room for the encampment of a full brigade in time of war or of a mobilization of troops for any purpose.

DANCED TO FIDDLE MUSIC.

President Leads His Cabinet in Old Time Dance.

Particulars were recently learned of the festivities at Secretary and Mrs. Long's farewell dinner the other night to the president and the cabinet on board the Dolphin, says a special from Washington to the New York World. President and Mrs. Roosevelt, the secretary of state, the secretary of the treasury and Mrs. Shaw, the attorney general, the secretary of agriculture and Miss Wilson, Rear Admiral and Mrs. Perry, Lieutenant Commander and Mrs. Gieves, Miss Jones, niece of the postmaster general, and Miss Long comprised the party.

The boat was lavishly decorated. A big dolphin picked out in electric lights swung between the masts. The government conservatories had been ransacked for palms and flowers and potted plants. The Marine band was stationed on the deck just above the saloon hatchway and played during the evening.

After dinner the president learned that one of the sailors played the fiddle. The fiddle was summoned, and the president asked him if he could play a good old fashioned "shake-down." The sailor said he could and struck up the Virginia reel. The president and his cabinet ministers chose their partners and, with the president in the lead, "shook it down" on the deck in lively style.

The only music was when Secretary Wilson in turning a sharp corner fell on the slating deck. Everybody laughed at the secretary, and the president shouted:

"Get up, you old constable!"

The dance was not strenuous enough for the president. Two other jacks were sent for and gave a broadsword exhibition. Then two more came and boxed three lively rounds. By this time it was 11 p. m., and the Dolphin put in for shore.

Lone Prisoner Left to Try.

A Short Term

Of Criminal Court for the Jury,

Luke Geherty Pleading Innocent to the Charge of Burglary.

A Dispute as to Rights to a Lease in Perry Township Brings the Parties Interested Into Court.

The first and only criminal case which is to be brought to trial as the result of the last grand jury's investigation was called this morning, but an adjournment was made until one o'clock this afternoon, when Luke Geherty, the prisoner in question was brought over from the county jail.

Attorney Howard Williamson, who was appointed to defend the accused, will endeavor to convince the jury that Geherty while in part to blame, is not guilty of the offense charged in the indictment, which holds him for burglary and larceny. Prosecutor Kluger made the statement of the state's case, explaining that on the 14th of last February a loaded car on the Clover Leaf railroad was broken into and a box of clothing and shoes shipped by a Cleveland firm to Decatur, Ind., was removed by several tramps and hidden in a barn. Geherty, who is a wife, was arrested a few days later attired in one of the suits and has since been confined in the jail awaiting trial. A representative of the Cleveland firm, the Delphos Manufacturing and several of the Clover Leaf crew are here as witnesses for the state. The only defense Geherty has is his own story and he makes the claim that he had nothing to do with the burglary, but came upon the other tramps at work and was given the suit in which he was attired when arrested.

Case Will Go Up.

A motion for a new trial has been filed in the contested will case of Christian Groves vs. Wm. Groves, several causes of error being cited, which means that the contest will be carried to the higher courts. The jury returned a verdict Friday evening in favor of the defendant and held the will to be a valid one. B. J. Brotherton, of Delphos and Leete & Brotherton of Lima, conducted the defense.

A Disputed Lease.

Joseph C. Smith and Arthur D. Smith have applied for a temporary restraining order to prevent interference on the part of J. W. Griffin and A. F. Wheeler with a lease in which they claim to be interested in Perry township, consisting of 115 acres. The petition asks that the defendants be restrained from erecting a derrick and drilling an oil well on the premises. T. R. Hamilton represents the plaintiffs.

BROKEN

Segment Struck Him With Awful Force

And P. M. Coulton, an Oil Field Worker, is in the Hospital With a Broken Jaw.

Another oil field accident, and with shocking but not necessarily fatal consequences, occurred on the Baker farm north of Lima Saturday afternoon. The injured man is P. M. Coulton, who was employed by Johnson & Wilde, owners of the lease, and he is now at the city hospital.

At the time of the accident Coulton was in the pump house at work with the gas engine, when a ratchet flew off and struck him with awful force on the left jaw. The bone was broken square into two and the flesh torn, separating the lower teeth. A small portion of the tongue was bitten off by the impact.

Bennett's ambulance was called and Coulton was taken to the hospital, where the severed jaw was brought together by wire stitches, and he was made as comfortable as possible. He has a wife and family living on Heller street.

Of Polypus Resulted in a Severe Hemorrhage.

The removal of a polypus from his nose started a severe hemorrhage, blood flowing from the ears, nose and eyes, and he was in a very weakened condition before it was reduced and finally stopped.

The weather man will soon be making it hot for the people who have been roasting him.
